LEW OF TWO MILLS ton administration on anti-trust legis-lation. Steel was under pressure at the FOR THE PANAMA EXPOSITION

The county board of commissioners this morning advised J. A. Critchlow of Salt Lake and Dr. H. M. Rowe of Ogden, members of the state Panama exposition commission, that a levy of 2 mills will be made by the county to aid in defraying the expense of making a state exhibition opening figures were 1-8 to 1-4c highof products and resources at the Pan- er, and the market scored a further ama Exposition in San Francisco in gain.

The board stated to the gentlemen, however, that of the sum collected, a sufficient amount would be reserved to defray state fair expenses of this year, which will amount to from $300 to $400 after the money received, as in the neignboring pits, premiums has been applied to the First sales of provision premiums has been applied to the First sales of provisions ranged expense acount. The amount of the from 5 to 17 1-2c higher, with an adtax to be collected on a 2-mill levy ditional subsequent upturn will reach the sum of about $4,000, Continued expert demand and it will be made available as soon winter wheat kept the market point-as the processes of the law can op- ed upward. The close was strong erate in the collection.

Mr. Critchlow stated to the board that nearly every county board of more than a million bushels of corn commissioners in the state has been each. approached and that all have stated that the levy would be made. The state commission having the matter in hand already has an architect engaged drawing plans fo ran exposition building for Utah at San Fran-cisco and Mr. Critchlow and Dr. Rowe stated this morning that it is now necessary to know just about how much money will be available, so as to plan the building according to the

FRED J. KIESEL

The Hon, Fred J. Klesel, when seen this morning regarding the trip of the Ogden Tabernacle Choir to the San Francisco and San Diego expositions, expressed much enthusiasm over the advertising possibilities and was highly pleased at the attitude of the Web-

"I had been thinking for some time," he said, "of ways and means by which it would be possible to fin-ance the trip and thought that he backing of the Weber Club was necessary to give the matter a firm footing. In view of the large attendance at the club meeting and the fact that the matter had been brought before the club, I felt that the psychological moment had come and so it proved. Prestige has now been given to the venture and, it possibly will turn out better than expected when first plan-

He also said that plans had been started for an Irrigation Day at the Exposition and in this respect said: "The purpose of the Panama-Pacific Exposition is to advertise and develop the west and if the feature of irrigation was left uot, its purpose would fall. We are going to have an Irrigation Day and if an Irrigation Day, we must have the Irrigation Ode sung and by the Irrigation Choir."
